@JoelOsteen tweets “When you get up in the morning, declare that something good is going to happen.”

“That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth; And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.”

Philippians 2:10,11

Joel tweets on November 26th – “The facts may tell you one thing. But, God is not limited by the facts. Choose faith in spite of the facts.”

Joel Osteen is the pastor of the largest church in America, Lakewood Church in Houston, Texas. His form and likeness appear on magazine covers at the supermarkets, on best-selling books, on board games, and on nearly every talk and interview show on television. He is very active on social media, especially on Twitter where he has logged over 12,000 tweets to over 3 million followers.

So just for fun tonight, I paid a visit to his Twitter account and read through every text for the past year. His most recent text was today, and his oldest, visible text was posted on November 25th, 2013. As I scrolled through his tweets, I made some shocking discoveries for the man referred to as “America’s Pastor”.

In the last year, Joel has tweeted roughly 806 times. He used the word God in a general sense 261 times, he never quoted the bible, and used the words “dream” or “dreams” as in achieving your dreams 66 times. Here is what searches for the following words turned up:

- Jesus, Christ (2 tweets for Easter) – April 19th
- Christ (1 tweet for Easter) – April 20th
- Jesus (1 tweet as a plug for movie he was promoting “Son Of God) – February 27th
- Scripture Quotes – None
- God – 261 times
- Dream – 47 times
- Dreams – 19 times
- Salvation – None
- Hell – None
- Repent – None
- Sin – None
- Sins – 1 time
- Blessing – 18 times

But here was the biggest shocker of them all. The most visible and most popular Christian pastor in America only used the words “Jesus” and “Christ” 2 times each! And 3 of those tweets was because it was Easter, and the other was a plug for a movie! In the past 13 months, Osteen has invoked the Name of Jesus Christ less than 0.0025% in all his public tweets.

That means Joel has almost never tweeted about the redeeming love of Jesus, almost never tweeted about His shed blood on the cross, never tweeted about Jesus Christ for any reason except to promote a movie and the pagan holiday of Easter.

Here are Joel's only two Jesus tweets...
