

Chuck Missler Aligns Himself with 'Prophet' Kim Clement

February 6, 2015

(Stand Up for the Truth)—A lot of Christians have been asking us about a well-known Bible teacher, Chuck Missler. We've been aware of growing concerns being voiced from around the country over teachings and partnerships, including the pairing of Missler with New Apostolic Reformation "singing prophet" Kim Clement....

The Discernment Research Group has released its findings about the pairing of Pastor Missler's Koinonia Institute with Kim Clement. The article is lengthy and addresses many concerns, all footnoted and linked so that readers can examine and compare these events to Scripture as the Bereans did....

The Merging of Muddy Rivers

For the past few years, we have documented the ever-mystical leanings of notable Bible teacher and author, Chuck Missler, ultimately listing him among a group of evangelical teachers we've dubbed 'Postmodern Prophecy Paradigm' (PPP) leaders, because of their gravitation away from sound truth revealed in Scripture alone, coupled with their feverish efforts to re-fashion end-times prophecy to fit their extra-biblical speculations....

In recent years, Missler has been embroiled in several controversies related to his teachings dealing with Quantum Mysticism, Cryptic Bible Codes, and Nephilim False Eschatology. He has also been caught on more than one occasion in plagiarism.

In 2007, Missler drew yet another type of controversy when he appeared on the speaking platform with a group of NAR prophets, mystics, and teachers, for the Quantum Leap 2 conference—co-sponsored by the extreme prophetic entity, The Elijah List.

It was therefore a curious thing to discover that ...
