

America, Practice What You Preach!

There's an old saying that comes from the Bible, 'What goes around comes around'. What a man sows, that shall he also reap. I think the U.S. is reaping tragedy in Iraq for sowing its double standard and hypocrisy towards Israel in its time of tragedy.

I've grown weary of hearing the same old worn phrases from the U.S. when it comes to Israel dealing with the terrorist murderers who kill its women and children with impunity. The DEMAND that Israel show RESTRAINT towards these murderers, along with the other cliché peace slogans directed towards Israel are disgusting and an insult to free people everywhere. I've no doubt the call for restraint on Israel is so that Israel will not win this latest Islamic war to destroy Israel.

Since the Oslo signing in 91' Israel has not had a day of peace, but many days of restraint that has only encouraged more terrorism. Maybe it's time for the U.S. and its FAILED policy makers to butt out, shut up and get the hell out of the way and allow Israel to soundly defeat the Palestinian enemy.

It's only after a complete TOTAL defeat that the enemies desire to wage terror and war is crushed. Why do the bona fide idiots in Washington not understand this? Maybe they do, they just don't want their Arab allies to suffer another devastating defeat, so they hinder Israel from winning at every opportunity.

The U.S., by the same pathetic 'RESTRAINT' reasoning should show restraint to the poor Iraqi's of Fallujah who are deprived of good jobs and only took their rightful frustrations out on the four more prosperous and employed SUV drivers. I think the U.S. government should surrender U.S. land to appease these angry folks. It's easy to surrender somebody else's land.

Maybe $87 billion dollars is not enough to tame the Islamic heart, how about upping the amount to $300 billion? You know how the U.S. dollar is the cure, the answer, for whatever ails the planet. Money, money, money; everyone's got a price.

The freedom, democracy export to Iraq has only made it possible for Iraq to become another RADICALIZED ISLAMIC country like its neighbor Iran. That's the truth about U.S. intervention in Iraq that we conservatives are afraid to face.

The hypocrisy of our government when it hinders Israel from defeating the Palestinian Terrorist Authority is unforgivable. This drive of the U.S. to reward the Islamic Front Line Armies with Israeli land will only lead to a more sever and catastrophic all out war and not peace.

Is the U.S. setting the stage for Armageddon? I think so! The Chinese and Russians want a bigger piece of the shrinking Middle East oil pie and will not permit the U.S. to succeed in Iraq. These blind American policy leaders are truly leading the U.S. to disaster and Israel to major calamity. We've told Israel for too long, restraint. What goes around comes around, and it's coming to our soldiers in Iraq on a daily basis. Israel is the proving ground. When dealing with Islam's goal of world domination the solution is NOT restraint.

Shalom,

Marcel
