THE BIBLE ANSWER MAN CONTINUES ANTI-ISRAEL PROGRAMS

The Bible Answer Man, Hank Hanegraff, has been on aggressive mission to discredit the biblical importance of the nation of Israel and the Christians who stand with Israel.

Hanegraaf, is a preterist, who believes that most, if not all, major prophetic events have already been fulfilled in history. His error about Israel is leading some of his radio audience astray, especially young Christians.

We have provided below the transcript of his December 9, 2004, program. (Moriel)

Note from Pastor Kevin Lea: I have had face-to-face talks with Hank Hanegraaf and I attended a Pastors conference where he spoke just three weeks after the September 11th attacks. Based on these conversations and on what he said at the Pastors conference, I came to the conclusion that Hanegraaf was a false teacher when it comes to his defense of Catholic doctrines, psychology in the church, downplaying the violent teachings of Islam, and negating Israel's role in biblical prophecy. After reading the transcript (link above) I am only further convinced that Hank is not a Bible Answer Man, but instead is a tool in the hand of the enemy to spread false doctrines in the church. Please beware.

*Acts 20:30 "Also from among yourselves men will rise up, speaking perverse things, to draw away the disciples after themselves. 31
"Therefore watch, and remember that for three years I did not cease to warn everyone night and day with tears.*

ISRAEL-RUSSIAN CRISIS OVER MISSILES SALE TO SYRIA

A recent mystery crisis in Israeli-Russia relations - the subject of wide speculation with its details remaining classified - was sparked by Moscow's plans to sell Syria missiles capable of striking at nearly any target within Israel, the Moscow daily Kommersant reported Wednesday. It said the Iskander-E missile has a target radius capable of reaching nearly all of Israel within reach, including the nuclear reactor site outside Dimona. Only the southern Negev and Eilat would be out of range.

Israeli military officials, speaking on condition of anonymity, have expressed concern that the missiles would get into the hands of Hezbollah and disrupt the military balance in the Middle East. The Russian daily reported that Israel recalled its ambassador in Russia over the deal.

Israel has briefed the American administration on the crisis in its relations with Russia. Israel did not ask the United States to intervene, even though the Americans have dealt with this matter in the past.

MEANWHILE: tension is mounting in Jerusalem ahead of Syrian President Bashar Assad's first visit to Moscow, on January 24. Assad will meet with President Vladimir Putin and discuss bilateral cooperation in various fields. Putin is scheduled to meet with U.S. President George W. Bush about a month later in Slovakia. GAZA PULLOUT EXPOSES 46 TOWNS TO ROCKET FIRE

The implementation of the disengagement plan - which involves an Israeli pullout from the entire Gaza Strip - will leave 46 western Negev communities exposed to Qassam rocket fire, a Home Front Command official told the Knesset Interior Committee on Tuesday.

The committee decided to ask the government to provide NIS 340 million immediately to fund a Home Front Command plan to protect communities in the Negev that are located seven kilometers from the border with the Gaza Strip.

Colonel Uzi Buchbinder, head of the Home Front Command's civil defense department, told the committee that those communities face the threats of both rocket fire and infiltration. The plan would protect schools and kindergartens and establish an early-warning system to alert residents to an impending Qassam rocket attack. Such a system has recently been set up in the western Negev town of Sderot, which has been the main target of Qassam attacks so far. (IMRA)

MEMRI TV Clip #464: London Imam Said Radhwan: Jihad against the Jews is the Only Option

An excerpt: "The only option with these Jews is Jihad. Jihad is the only option that the [Palestinian] resistance should employ and maintain against the Jews.

It is impossible for [the Palestinians] to regain their lands and their holy places in any way but Jihad, because Jihad is the only way to liberate the Palestinian lands and the Al-Aqsa Mosque."

Clip #463: Palestinian-Kuwaiti Sheik Ahmad Qattan on Allah's Rewards to a Martyr

An excerpt: "A martyr gets six rewards from Allah: His sins are forgiven with the first drop of his blood, and he sees his place in heaven; he is spared the torments of the grave, and he is safe from the great horror; the crown of honor is placed on his head - with a jewel finer than this world and what is in it; he is married off to 72 black-eyed women, and he may plead for 70 of his relatives. This reminds me of the Mujahideen and Martyrdom seekers who stand in line in Palestine: men and women, adults and children, awaiting their turn to sign, with their blood and their broken bones, their pledge of faith in Allah."
