

Quotes from New World Order Advocates (Past and Present)

Posted September 25, 2009

Note from Pastor Kevin Lea: Thousands of years ago, God confused the languages of man to break up their evil world order (Genesis 11). The prophetic books of Daniel and Revelation foretell that in the last days the world will again be united under the leadership of the Antichrist. Although this New World Order will be advertised as a necessary move to usher in global peace, it will instead deliver unprecedented death and misery (1 Thessalonians 5:3, Matthew 24, Revelation 13). It does appear from the quotes below (and the current events playing into the hands of those who espouse global governance) that the "Tribulation Period" is just around the corner. I pray the reader has bowed the knee to Jesus and received His gift of everlasting life while there is still time. The grim reaper's sickle is sharpened and ready.

"We believe a new order will be born no later than early in the next century and that the death throes of the old and the birth pangs of the new will be a testing time for the human species." -- Richard A. Falk, "Toward a New World Order"

"We have before us the opportunity to forge for ourselves and for future generations a new world order, a world where the rule of law, not the rule of the jungle, governs the conduct of nations. When we are successful, and we will be, we have a real chance at this new world order, ..." —President George H. W. Bush, 1991

"... when the struggle seems to be drifting definitely towards a world social democracy, there may still be very great delays and disappointments before it becomes an efficient and beneficent world system. Countless people ... will hate the new world order ... and will die protesting against it. — "When we attempt to evaluate its promise, we have to bear in mind the distress of a generation or so of malcontents, many of them quite gallant and graceful-looking people." —H.
