

NIA Exposes Debt Ceiling Truth

July 30, 2011

Note from Pastor Kevin Lea follows this article.

NIA hasn't written about the whole debt ceiling issue over the past few weeks because in our minds it is completely irrelevant. Our elected representatives in Washington along with the mainstream media have been wasting thousands of hours of time and hundreds of millions of dollars debating a topic that has no meaning at all. The President, Senate, and House of Representatives are putting on a show to make it look like they care about cutting spending and balancing the budget. Except for a select few elected representatives like Ron Paul who care about protecting the U.S. Constitution and preserving what little purchasing power the U.S. dollar still has left, every other politician in Washington is putting on a complete charade in order to trick their constituents into believing there is a difference between the proposals from the Republicans and Democrats.

While our incompetent and corrupt mainstream media has been proclaiming there are major differences between the two bills proposed by House Speaker John Boehner and Senate Majority Leader Harry Reid, NIA believes John Boehner might as well be a Democrat and Harry Reid could easily pass himself off as a Republican. There are absolutely no meaningful fundamental differences between Boehner's plan that was approved by the House of Representatives yesterday evening, before being killed by the Senate two short hours later, and Reid's bill, which was just rejected by the House today in a pre-emptive vote before the Senate even had a chance to vote on it.

Both bills are estimated to reduce the U.S. budget deficit by approximately $900 billion over the next 10 years. Of the $900 billion only about $750 billion are actual discretionary spending cuts with the rest being an expected reduction in interest payments on the national debt as a result of either bill passing. When you have an unstable fiat currency... (To read this article in its entirety, go to: <http://inflation.us/debtceilingtruth.html>.)

Note from Pastor Kevin Lea: The Bible says in Proverbs 22:7: The rich rules over the poor, and the borrower is servant to the lender.

American's would have done well to heed the warnings of this Scripture rather than to demand services that could not be paid for by the taxation of our own citizens. Decades ago we should have admitted that we could not afford all the benefits and programs of the "Great Society." Instead, we coveted these "something for nothing" programs and demanded that our representatives (state and federal) promise them to us using the weight of law.

Fifteen trillion dollars ago we should have realized that we needed to abandon this sinful foolishness and go back to living within our means. But oh no; instead we found other countries who were not sinfully spending money they did not have, and who were willing to give us a line of credit. Now the credit line has run out and we are about to experience the slavery that the Bible prophesied comes to a people hell bent on borrowing.

The misery that we are about to experience will far exceed the discomfort that we would have endured by simply living in the black all these decades. Many will blame God for allowing all this misery to occur, but it was God who warned us with these words spoken through the Apostle Paul: "Now godliness with contentment is great gain. For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out. And having food and clothing, with these we shall be content. But those who desire to be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and harmful lusts which drown men in destruction and perdition. For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil, for which some have strayed from the faith in their greediness, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows." 1 Timothy 6:6-10 NKJV

Is it God's fault that we have thrown away His law and not listened to His warnings? I think not.
