Iran's leadership—ever since the shah fell in 1979—has never made any secret of its desire to see Israel wiped off the map. Previous President Mahmoud Ahmadinejad called for such an outcome in nearly every one of his speeches in the eight years he served until 2013.

Now, however, Supreme Leader Ayatollah Ali Khamenei has decided to quantify the supposedly logical reasons for destroying the Jewish nation. Long known for his anti-Israel rhetoric, Khamenei has issued what appears to be his most detailed tirade to date in a Twitter post titled "9 key questions about the elimination of Israel."

"Why should & how can #Israel be eliminated? Ayatollah Khamenei's answer to 9 key questions. #HandsOffAlAqsa," read the introduction to Khamenei's tweet, posted Saturday. The hashtag #HandsOffAlAqsa referred to the recent tensions between Arabs and Jews at the Temple Mount. As part of the tweet, Khamenei proposed a referendum that would serve as a means for the elimination of Israel.

In his tweet, the first question the ayatollah seeks to answer is, "Why should the Zionist regime be eliminated?" His answer: "During its 66 years of life so far, the fake Zionist regime has tried to realize its goals by means of infanticide, homicide, violence and iron fist while boasts about it blatantly."

Another question: "What is the most urgent action to take to militarily confront Israel?" Khamenei's answer in part, "The West Bank should be armed like Gaza and those who are interested in Palestine's destiny should take action to arm the people of the West Bank ..."

"So far as I know, Khamenei's idea of a referendum has not been proposed by the Islamic Republic of Iran until now. It suggests that the Iranian leadership wishes to make common cause with the leftists also wanting to see Israel disappear," Dr. Daniel Pipes, founder and president of the Middle East Forum, told jns.org. In addition to the referendum, the Iranian leader called for Palestinians in the West Bank and Gaza to ...

Note from Pastor Kevin Lea: Unless there is a God who watches out for Israel, she is not long for this world. Six million Jews living in Israel see the signs all around them. They are hated by one billion Muslims in the region and around the world; nearly every nation in the UN General Assembly consistently votes against Israel; most Protestant denominations are trying to ruin the Jewish state financially through boycotts and divestment; and ever more sophisticated weapons are being produced for their enemies to use against her.

What Khamenei does not know now – but will later – is that there is a God who watches out for His promised people, and those who try to destroy her will themselves be destroyed.

*"When you [Israel] go out to battle against your enemies, and see horses and chariots and people more numerous than you, do not be afraid of them; for the Lord your God is with you, who brought you up from the land of Egypt. So it shall be, when you are on the verge of battle, that the priest shall approach and speak to the people. And he shall say to them, 'Hear, O Israel: Today you are on the verge of battle with your enemies. Do not let your heart faint, do not be afraid, and do not tremble or be terrified because of them; for the Lord your God is He who goes with you, to fight for you against your enemies, to save you.'
