Thus he said: 'The fourth beast shall be A fourth kingdom on earth, Which shall be different from all other kingdoms, And shall devour the whole earth, Trample it and break it in pieces. He shall speak pompous words against the Most High, Shall persecute the saints of the Most High, and shall intend to change times and law. Then the saints shall be given into his hand for a time and times and half a time. 'But the court shall be seated, and they shall take away his dominion, to consume and destroy it forever. (Dan 7:2, 25-26)

Are we Anabaptists?

I personally believe we are witnessing the unprecedented rise of the final one world ecumenical Church. This harmonic convergence of an emerging political-religious system is offering (and will soon demand) total spiritual unity regardless of faith, creed or denomination to all nations of the world. Perhaps better described as the New World Order or the Fourth Reich, there will remain only one innate schism that stands in the way complete success of this grand scheme of complete global domination...

Church and State

The Church and the Third Reich

THE RESISTORS! These are last days believers who uncompromisingly proclaim that Yeshua is the ONLY way to the Father, and there is NO OTHER name under heaven through which a man can be saved.

Jesus said, “I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through Me. Nor is there salvation in any other, for there is no other name under heaven given among men by which we must be saved.” (Jn 14:6 Ac 4:12)

So how will this new emerging ecumenical World-Church deal with these utopia hindering resisters? To answer, I felt it necessary to uncover the testimonies of resisters from centuries past in order that we might learn from what history may teach us. The following is just one account of many of faithful believers who stood against the State-Church masters of their day. These resisters were known as the Anabaptists...

The Anabaptists or “rebaptizers”, were members of a variety of 16th - century religious groups that rejected infant baptism and the sovereign control of the State-Church. Since they believed that only after an adult had come to faith in Jesus Christ should he or she be baptized.

Anabaptists held the church to be the congregation of true saints who should separate themselves from the sinful world. Their theology was highly eschatological, and they claimed direct inspiration by the Holy Spirit. Their beliefs made them appear as State-Church “resisters” and provoked persecution, sadly by fellow Protestant Christians. For their refusal to accept the edicts of the State-run church, and insistence on adult instead of infant baptism, they were subject to imprisonment, torture, expulsion and even execution.

How the Church dealt with “resisters”

In Zurich, Switzerland, Ulrich Zwingli A.D. 1484-1531 spearheaded the radical reformation of the Anabaptists.

They are predecessors of the modern-day Amish, Mennonites, Puritans, Quakers, and Baptists. It was not unusual for them to dance, fall under the power of the Holy Spirit and speak in tongues.

The Frankhauser family house near Bern, Switzerland

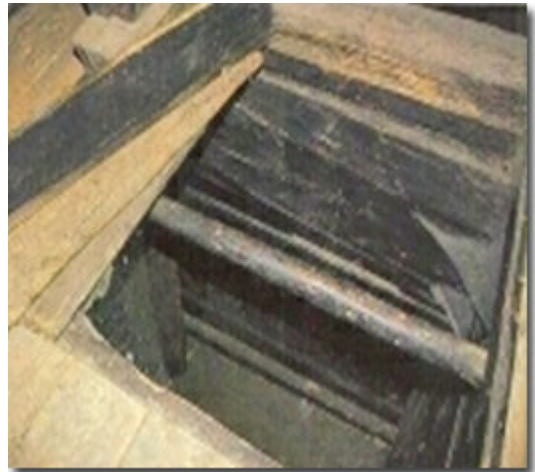

Recently we were privileged to visit one of the secret hideouts of the Anabaptists not far from where we live in a house called, “Taufer Versteck.” In this typical Bernese style farm-chalet, we learned of the tragic history of believers hid themselves in secret rooms for fear of capture by their Protestant Christian persecutors. It was in this house that the Frankhauser family lived near Bern, Switzerland. After many months of hiding as a fugitive, on January 12, 1709 Christian Frankhauser was caught and thrown into prison where he was held over 14 months. According to statements of other prisoners, the conditions were dreadful. On March 18, 1710 Christian along with 45 men and 12 were eventually banished to the Netherlands under Swiss religious ethnic cleansing. The wife of Christian Frankhauser finally overcome with sorrow, died 1721. Somewhere around 1728 some of the surviving family members, along with many other families, immigrated by the ship to America and settled in Philadelphia seeking freedom of religious worship. To this very day, numerous descendants of these faithful martyrs have settled and prospered throughout America.

I truly believe with all my heart that just as the Taufer Versteck house mentioned above was used to shelter God's people during the storm of anti-Christian persecution, so again the Lord will use many Safe Houses like the Schönegg to serve as places of refuge for His faithful remnant both for Jews and Christians.

May the Lord help us to be awake, ready and prepared for the Tribulation that is soon to befall the entire earth!

Come, my people, enter your chambers, And shut your doors behind you; Hide yourself, as it were, for a little moment, Until the indignation is past. For behold, the Lord comes out of His place to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity; The earth will also disclose her blood, And will no more cover her slain. (Isa 26:20-21)
