Note from Pastor Kevin Lea: This is where Israel/Judah were just before judgment came: “Unless the Lord of hosts Had left to us a very small remnant, We would have become like Sodom, We would have been made like Gomorrah” (Isaiah 1:9, NKJV)

An 80-year-old woman was banned from the YMCA she had frequented for over three decades because she objected to showering in the locker room while a transgender employee was present.

Julie Jaman has been a member of the Mountain View Pool in Port Townsend, Washington for 35 years but recently found herself banned for life after she alerted staff that the employee’s presence in the locker room made her uncomfortable.

It began when she says she “heard a man’s voice” in the locker room as she was showering. That was when she says she observed the trans employee watching children use the bathroom. “I saw a man in a woman’s bathing suit watching maybe four or five little girls pulling down their suits in order to use the toilet,” Jaman told Seattle radio host Dori Monson on Friday, as The New York Post reported. “I asked if he had a penis and he said it was none of my business. I told that man to ‘get out right now.’”

When Jaman told an employee, however, she was told that her objections were “discriminatory” and that she “was banned from the pool forever.” She also claims that she was told the police would be called if there was further incident. “She didn’t ask me what the problem was, if I was okay, nothing about me,” the distressed Jaman told Monson. “It’s as if she was just waiting to pounce on me. It was just stunning.”
