Believe me, I would much rather write about the Lord's soon return than gay pride—or rather, gay depravity. God introduced the rainbow in Genesis 9. It was a part of a promise He made. A whole twisted movement hijacked it.

In America, the month of June is set aside to celebrate the gay lifestyle. But let's be honest: the Western culture demands the near-constant celebration of homosexuality every day and every month of every year. Throw in the now celebrated trans agenda, and the culture decline is astounding. We are racing backwards to the days of Noah. Trans nudity was even celebrated on the White House lawn this week and may have trampled all hopes for a turn-around in America.

What Must God Think of "Queer All Year"?

But June of 2023 saw dozens of major retailers betraying conservative and Christian customers as they catered to this cultural collapse. "Queer all year" was the theme of retail America. Target lost billions in sales due to boycotts and others followed in lock step, more committed to an agenda than to corporate profits. We would eventually learn these retail outfits would be subsidized by globalist schemers.

Here is just a sampling of items offered to eager customers:

- Homosexual and trans clothing for three-month-olds
- Cookie rainbow houses for small children
- Pet gear, pet toys, pet treats in rainbow colors
- Pet chew toys that are guaranteed to turn a dog or cat gay
- Rainbow jewelry in 14k gold
- Pride-themed eyewear
- Multi-colored pride cake mixes
- Baby "always-proud" bibs
- Special pride boxes of Pop-Tarts targeting youth on Instagram

Jesus Had Grace But Spoke Truth

Our Romans 1 culture celebrates this and as Christians, we must respond with grace, love, and kindness to every person trapped in the deadly blindness of the LGBTQ lifestyle. But, many once-solid churches and denominations are going along to get along and will not speak out about the biblical warnings. Jesus represented grace and truth...
